W. G. Douglas, a well-to-do retired farmer, who resided at 490 Harrison avenue, ended his life Monday afternoon by hanging himself in the stable on his lot. Since last winter he had been suffering with cancer of the face and it is supposed this so preyed on his mind that rather than endure prolonged suffering, he de cided to end it all. He had carefully laid his plans, Monday forenoon he seemed quite cheertul and helped Mrs. Douglas with 79 Neave No. 4 Sch.Dist.
